

myCentennial

Once I am a student, how can I log in to myCentennial?

To login to MyCentennial, you can enter your information in this format:

Username: Centennial College Student ID number

Password: Your date of birth in the following format (MMDDYY), ex. January 15 1980 = 011580

Login here:

<https://my.centennialcollege.ca/cp/home/displaylogin>

The first time you login, you will be asked to reset your password.

MyCentennial Email – How can I access it?

Each student is assigned a myCentennial email account. To access your email, log in to the myCentennial portal. On the main page once you are logged in, you should see a link to your Email and Calendar. At the top of the page you will also see an icon of an envelope which will direct you to your myCentennial email account.

Your password for your initial login is your date of birth in the format MmmDDYYYY (case sensitive) e.g. Sep211984 for September 21, 1984.

*Note: The password for myCentennial email is different than the password to login to the myCentennial portal.

After you log in for the first time, you will be given instructions to change your temporary password to one that is more secure.

How can I register for my courses?

As an International student entering into your first semester, you are required to come to the international office to provide hard copies of your required documents to register and build your timetable.

Please note, a hold will show on your account until you meet your admissions assistant in person to provide hard copies of the following required documents: <http://bit.ly/registration-and-course-selection>
